COOL WEATHER PROMISED.

The Weather Bureau Predicts a Fall of Thirty Degrees Tonight.

LATEST FROM VERSAILLES, IND.

Believed That Two More Lynchings May Occur This Week—Victims' Relatives Arriving.

OTHER LATE TELEGRAPH NEWS.

Louisville, Sept. 16.—The weather bureau predicts a general cold wave tonight, with heavy showers and a fall of thirty degrees in temperature.

MAY BE MORE LYNCHINGS.

The Friends of the Versailles Victims Said to be Getting Ready for Vengeance.

Versailles, Ind., Sept. 16.—It is believed here that two more lynchings will occur this week. The relatives of the victims are arriving themselves and are preparing for vengeance. There may be serious trouble yet.

FARMERS AS AVENGERS.

Quick Work of the Indiana Mob—Five Lynched in a Bunch.

Governor Mount Says the Guilty Men Must Be Punished.

Versailles, Ind., Sept. 16.—The most sensational tragedy ever known to Southern Indiana was enacted at an early hour yesterday morning, when five culprits confined in the county jail were lynched. No parallel of the event can be found, perhaps, in all the history of the state. The victims were Henry Shuter, Levi Levi, William Jackson, Bert Andrews and Clifford J. Adams, who were confined in the county jail on the charge of burglary. They lived in the town of Osceola, and were supposed to belong to an organized band of thieves and highwaymen, who had been robbing and terrorizing the citizens of Ripley county for a number of years, and whose headquarters were located in Osceola.

The men were in the jail awaiting trial for having attempted to rob the general store of Woody Jones, at Centerville, last Saturday night. Two of the men, Gordon and Andrews, were captured at the time, after a running fight, and each had been severely wounded. The other prisoners were detained on the charge of having assisted and aided in the attempted burglary.

Yesterday morning about 12:45 o'clock James Kenan was awakened by the ringing of the bell at the jail residence. On opening the door he was met by three masked men who showed pistols in his face and demanded the keys to the jail cells. At this moment Deputy Jailer Black appeared on the scene, and he was also held in restraint till the keys were secured.

In the lower cells were confined Levi, Shuter and Jenkins, and there the visitors proceeded first. Levi's cell was first reached. He was awake, and, refusing to throw up his hands at the command of the leader, two pistol shots were heard and he fell to the floor still through the heart. Shuter, lying on his cot, refused to get up, but begged for his life. A stroke upon the head from a heavy stick forever silenced him and he rolled to the floor. Jenkins' fate was similar, and the three bodies were carried to the main corridor and the lynchmen made their way upstairs, where Gordon and Andrews were found. They, being already wounded, submitted and their hands were tied behind their necks, and they were dragged down the stairway where their companions lay. Ropes were placed around the necks of all, and the order was given by the leader, "Pull on the ropes, boys, and hurry up." The command was obeyed and the bodies were dragged out into the street.

The entire program of action had evidently been carefully planned in its minutest detail. Not a word was spoken as the five victims were dragged through the main street of the village to an old elm tree near the outskirts. The prisoners not already dead were unconscious. As far as the mob knew all were dead. This act no figure, however, for had they all been alive they would have been hanged just as they were.

When the old elm tree was reached five ropes were slung from the limbs ready and waiting for the victims. The mob had no time to wait, however, for each man who held the end of a rope at whose other end lay dying or dead a prisoner threw the dye over a limb, and dozens of hands seized the rope and pulled the body high into the air.

SILVER CRAZE COOLING.

Crowd at the Silver Camp Meeting at Springfield Rather Small.

Springfield, O. Sept. 15.—The silver camp-meeting arranged to continue here a week began today with a somewhat smaller assemblage than was expected. It is called a national free-silver camp-meeting. A number of silver speakers of note are engaged for each day. A great tent has been erected on the fair grounds for the speaking which will seat 6,000 and give accommodation for 20,000.

Rain in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Sept. 16.—Heavy rains are falling today, and the great drought seems to be broken.

THE SOUTHERN SCOURGE.

Yellow Fever Slowly Making Headway.

Refugees Fleeing From the South—More Cities Being Quarantined.

Only one death from yellow fever was reported yesterday, but the appearance of new cases at different points greatly increased the alarm in the Southern states. The Government expert has pronounced eleven of the forty suspicious cases at Edwards, Miss., to be yellow fever, and the city of Jackson, near by, is panic stricken. The most stringent quarantine regulations exist throughout Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana. Local traffic on the railroads in Mississippi has been almost suspended. Refugees are coming North in large numbers. The Gulf states are panic stricken, despite the fact that as yet the cases are not numerous and the percentage of deaths very small.

Big Preparations for a Reunion at Kuttawa.

Capt. W. J. Stone Greatly Interested in the Affair.

At Kuttawa, Ky., Sept. 16.—The state board has instructed Dr. Parnell to place a cordon of guards around Edwards at once. Report says that the disease has also appeared at Clinton and Smiths Fork, and the discontinuance of trains on the Yazoo and Mississippi branches of the Woodville, Mississippi branch of the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley road.

MUST BE BROUGHT TO JUSTICE.

Governor Mount Expresses Himself Fully on the Versailles Lynching.

Indianapolis, Sept. 16.—When Governor Mount received information that five men had been lynched in Indiana, he immediately sent the following message to the sheriff of Ripley county:

"To the Sheriff of Ripley County, Versailles, Ind.:—Write me at once particulars of lynching reported to have occurred in your county. I further direct that you proceed, with all the power you can command, to bring to justice all parties participating in the murder of the five men alleged to have been lynched. Such lawlessness is intolerable, and all the powers of the state, if necessary, will be vigorously employed for the arrest and punishment of all parties implicated."

DIED AMONG STRANGERS.

J. W. Burns, a R. R. Engineer, Succumbs to Typhoid.

J. W. Burns, aged 45, died of typhoid-malaria fever on a shaky bed below the iron furnace this morning, after about a month's illness.

The deceased had a wife and brother here, the latter being Floyd Burns, of Mt. Sterling, Ky. The home of the victim was in R. R. No. 1, and by occupation he was a railroad engineer. He was coming down the river on his homelike when the fatal illness overtook him.

The remains were buried at Oak Grove at 4 o'clock this afternoon. His home is now moved at the foot of Tennessee street.

ARGUMENTS HEARD.

McGill Case Goes to the Jury Today.

GOOD SPEECHES ON BOTH SIDES.

McGill Looked Stolidly on and Seemed Indifferent.

VERDICT AWAITED WITH INTEREST.

The evidence in the McGill case was concluded in the circuit court yesterday afternoon late, and by this time tomorrow McGill will probably know his fate. There were numerous other witnesses to hear, but as this was deemed inexpedient and vain, they were not called.

Arguments began this forenoon, when County Attorney Honser, for an hour and a half, made an eloquent appeal to the jury to avenge the alleged crime.

Attorney C. K. Wheeler, for the defense, spoke for an hour and fifty minutes, and made a splendid argument in behalf of the defendant.

This afternoon Attorney L. K. Taylor opened with a good speech for the prosecution, and at present time Attorney Mark Worthen was addressing the jury in behalf of the prisoner.

It is likely that the jury will get the case by night.

McGill sat throughout the arguments without any manifestations of emotion one way or the other. Sometimes, however, he smiled scornfully, and then relapsed into indifference, and energetically masticated his gum.

The verdict is awaited with no little interest.

Ten Thousand Miners Return to Their Mines Today.

WOMEN TAKING A HAND.

Force Five Hundred Miners to Lay Down Their Tools.

THE HUNTER CASE ON TRIAL.

Pittsburg, Pa. Sept. 16.—The great strike seems to be over. Ten thousand men returned to work today in this district alone.

WOMEN'S WORK.

Hazleton, Pa., Sep. 16.—Women rioters forced 500 men here to quit work today.

THAT HUNTER CASE.

Is Now on Trial at Frankfurt.

Frankfurt, Sept. 16.—The Hunter bribery case was called this morning and the jury sworn, but after that the court adjourned to this afternoon.

The grand jury is investigating the bribery cases and may possibly return more indictments.

A PITIFUL SIGHT.

Rhoda Bowen Sent to Graves County.

Rhoda Bowen, who has been in the city hospital suffering from dropsy of the feet and a complication of ill, was sent to Pysburg at noon today.

The woman is unable to walk without support, and is a pitiful object to behold. In addition to her physical condition, the woman's mind has been ruined by excessive use of opiates.

As she was put aboard the train the spectacle elicited many remarks of sympathy and surprise from bystanders.

ANOTHER VICTIM.

Of the "Rough on Rats" Poison.

Henry Miller, the Father, Dies From His Illness.

Henry Miller, the Metropolis man who partook of "rough on rats" placed in the breakfast by his demoralized daughter a week or two ago, died last night, according to reports which reached the city this morning.

One of Miller's children died soon after eating the food, and Miller's condition was precarious. He lingered until yesterday and then succumbed.

PADUCAH ARCHITECT.

Drawing the Plans for Mayfield Improvements.

Mr. Brinton Davis, of Paducah, is drawing the plans for the four brick business rooms on West Broadway, says the Mayfield "Monitor."

The corner room is to be three stories high and the others two, and the building is to be up-to-date in every respect. Mr. Summerville has been working on his next to these. This is also to be two stories high and of modern style. Next to this is Hon. R. E. Johnston's building, on which work will soon begin. Never within her history has Mayfield been making so many improvements in the way of building as at present. Mr. J. T. Webb, it is learned, will erect brick business houses on his corner lot on Broadway, and Mr. Will Shelton will build a large brick lively stable just south of the Freshwater church.

WOUND RE-OPENED.

Will Karnes Has Misfortune Number Two.

Will Karnes, who split his knee cap with an axe last week while at work on Mr. L. S. DuBois' house in the West End, was severely hurt again yesterday by falling down and reopening the wound.

He was delirious nearly all day as a result, and today suffered considerably.

WRITTEN AT RANDOM.

"Speaking of steamboat mates," related Judge Campbell yesterday, "I remember a case once in which I was employed to defend 'Old Hoss' McHenry, a well known mate who recently died. Some men sued him for $2,500 for assault and battery. He charged in his petition that 'Old Hoss' struck him and made a 'crick' in his neck. 'Old Hoss' came around in his neck, and remarked as he waddled to that effect, 'I didn't do anything to that man. I gave him some of 'is shank' and I hit him with my left hand.'"

"What did he do when you hit him?" I asked.
"He just fell from the boat-board side of the boat over to the starboard side, and went head foremost into a skiff tied up to the boat."

"Major Harris presented the case, and when the trial came off said in his speech that the only thing remarkable about the affair was that there was anything left of his client to fall head foremost into the skiff after the big mate got through with him."

A good joke is told at the expense of a popular Broadway merchant, who is a great lover of horses and a good judge of it. The other day a "busted" sport approached him, and poured a pitiful tale of woe into his ears. He wanted twenty dollars and said he had a horse at hand at the livery stable which he would put up as collateral. The merchant could not resist that hard luck story and deeming the security good, advanced the money. A day or two ago he went around and took a look at the animal. He is worth about $5 at the most, and now the merchant contemplates killing him as the best method of getting rid of him.

The police say they always get the man who is shot, stabbed or robbed, especially if he gets killed. Some of the officers have a good sense of humor.

Officer Henry Singery, who is night chief when on regular duty, was sitting in front of Coroner Nance's undertaking establishment yesterday in an easy rocking chair.

"What are you doing?" asked a friend. "Why don't you get out and go over your beat?"
"Oh, I'm sitting here waiting for somebody to come give himself up," retorted the officer.
"Somebody might get killed, you know, and I guess if he did they'd be pretty apt to bring him around here, and I'd be saved the trouble of going after him."

"It's a great place to catch people, this coroner's shop is!"
The expert testimony introduced yesterday in the McGill case was principally to show that the wounds inflicted by McGill on his wife were not necessarily fatal. The doctors, or some of them, testified that much worse wounds had come under their observation which occasioned the patients little suffering, and from which they soon recovered. Yet the insignificant scratch of a pin has been known to kill the victim. Some of the doctors of the county said the wounds were necessarily fatal, but it is likely that the testimony introduced by the defense yesterday may have a tendency to overthrow such an opinion.

The east bound I. C. train are daily crowded with refugees from the South, who are seeking escape from the largely chimerical "Yellow Jack." The passengers all report much difficulty and inconvenience in their journey towards safety. Many of them have hastily abandoned home and business, have taken what little money they had laid up for a rainy day, as it were, and started impudently for the North. Many of them who had no ready money sold property, furniture and jewelry at a great sacrifice, and in a few weeks most of them will in all probability be wandering their way back—if they had the means of getting back—to kick themselves for the next several months for making such fools of themselves.

The action of the Mayor and Board of Health in ordering the city cleaned up will be commended by all good citizens. The town needs it, but just now when there is so much illness, it is particularly appreciable. The St. is just suggested the move.

Habitués of depots often meet traveling men who imagine the earth would stop in its orbit were they to suddenly shuffle off. They always want to make much needed suggestions to the conductor, and to run things to suit themselves. Another peculiarity is that they think their watch is the only one that has the time. This is an incident witnessed yesterday.

"It's about time to go, isn't it?" asked a drummer as he stopped the conductor on the platform at the depot.

Union Depot, pulled out his watch and held it up for inspection. The watch had probably been set the week before at St. Louis or Philadelphia, judging from the time it registered.

"This train is due to leave at 8 o'clock, sir," is all the conductor replied.

A little further down another man rushed up, yanked out a watch and said that it was leaving time. "Why don't you get out?" he asked the conductor.
"It was becoming evident that the ticket puncher was getting a little out of patience."

"Thought we were due to leave here at 8 o'clock," observed a grocery drummer from the car window, as he held his watch out to show the passing conductor that it was 8:05 by it.
"Guess we'll be out on time," interrupted the conductor, "and I want you and everybody else to understand right now that I'm running this train by my watch, and not by the Waterbury's and the contraptions of the passengers. I've got a certificate of inspection and the books show that my watch is all right, and as long as this is the case I'm going to run the train by it," and as the two men put their watches back and walked off he shouted, "All aboard!" and gave the signal.

It is being claimed by some people that the prevailing illness is the result of sewerage excavations. This is absurd in the face of the fact that there is a corresponding amount of illness elsewhere, and that the local sickness is not by any means confined to the locality where the trenches have been dug.

Furthermore, there is more illness in the county, proportionately, than in the city, one doctor alone having seventeen cases of typhoid under his cure. The people, out there, however, probably caught it from the large ditches turned up by the plow, or the holes made in hoeing crops.

Amusing it is to discover the ignorance of some well to do and wealthy people. Oftentimes it is not discovered until they die.

A will was filed not many weeks ago in the county clerk's office for probation, the author of which could not spell the names of even his own wife and children. It was indited—the instrument was—in a cramped, illegible hand, and had it been required to pass muster on correct orthography, grammar or readability, it would have straightway been thrown out of court.

It is thus in many cases. Deeds, wills and mortgages, written by men and women who are afraid of lawyers, and have undertaken to draw up their own papers, are filed and can hardly be read. One seen recently starts out: "I — — —, being sound in mind but feebly in health, do make this" etc., burial being spelled "herial," and beloved, "behind."

"I see where the Board of Health wants the stand pipe cleaned out," remarked Assistant Chain Gang Overseer Emil Gontieux this morning.

"Now I want it understood," he continued, "if the Board of Health thinks me and that chain gang are going to bail out that stand pipe it is greatly mistaken. I'll resign first!" He then walked off to conceal a smile.

Officer Frank Harlan sauntered up Broadway this morning shortly before 7 o'clock. His eyes blinked merrily as he looked in first one door and then in another.

Presently he stopped in front of a cigar store, where a good looking girl was sweeping.

"Now daughter," he said affectionately, "you mustn't sweep that trash out into the gutter. You know I am sorry to do it, but orders are orders."

The girl smiled and began sweeping the trash back. The officer directly ran across another pretty girl sweeping out, and in a gracious, polite manner, also called her "daughter," and requested her to sweep the trash back.

Then he reached a military store, and there was a colored girl black as ebony sweeping great heaps of trash out the door.

"Now dan-in-la-dai — I mean little girl—little girl—you'll have to sweep that"—he started as he became more and more confused by the laughter of several bystanders.

"Oh, I don't care!" he concluded desperately, without finishing his instructions to the colored girl. "She's only sweeping off the sidewalk anyway!"

He now says "daughter" is not a good term to apply to every one.

THE DAY OF DAYS.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 5.

This is called the day of days because it is upon that day that Paducah will have its first opportunity to see the most famous exhibition the world has ever known; as well known in Europe as in America: the first public exhibition ever attended by Queen Victoria during her widowhood; the only public exhibition and the first public event of any sort to call together in one assembly over 300 members of the royal families of Europe—an absolute historical fact: the only American exhibition that has ever exhibited in nearly all the capitals of Europe, including London, Paris, Berlin, Vienna, Madrid and Rome.

It is the same in every detail as the great exhibition which spent an entire season at Earl's court, London; at the Exposition Universelle, at Paris, and man for man and horse for horse the same exhibition which successfully vied with the Columbian World's Fair at Chicago in '93 for public popularity.

Nay. It is even more—larger, greater, grander, more comprehensive. All the features it possessed then will be brought to Paducah and many more which it did not have then.

It is the same great exhibition which spent the entire season of 1893 at Audubon park, Brooklyn; the season of '95 in the principal cities of the east and south, and the season of '96 in the principal cities of the west.

It is the same exhibition which began its season of 1897 at Brooklyn and after two weeks there went across the river to Madison Square Garden, New York City, where for three weeks it actually turned away thousands of persons every day and broke all records for attendance and receipts in the world's history of amusements.

It is the same exhibition to which New York's great newspapers gave over 200 columns of notices, stories and illustrations in three weeks' time—an entirely unprecedented honor.

It is the same exhibition and it is still led by that great American citizen, scout and soldier, Col. W. F. Cody (Buffalo Bill). He is the same scout who gallantly served under Kentucky's great soldier, whose death alone, perhaps, prevented his name from being first on the scroll of martial fame, the still and ever lamented Gen. Albert Sydney Johnston; the same scout whose bravery, heroism and invaluable services to his country have been attested by every general in the regular army of the United States during the past thirty-five years.

He is the same citizen, born in an humble farm house on the banks of the Mississippi, his scant school education in a country school house, who, before his teens, was in the saddle in his country's service; who, fully stepped from the camp of the hunter, the tepee of the Indian, the bivouac of the soldier, into the saloons of Europe—in which for years he was ever a welcome guest; the modest gentleman whose innate dignity and graceful bearing and physical perfection amazed all Europe, which supposed such attributes could come only from generations of gentle birth and aristocratic associations.

It is this same true soldier and gentleman who pledges his honor to the people of Paducah that not only are all the foregoing statements about his exhibition simple truth, but also that he will be here in Paducah in person and participate in both the afternoon and evening exhibitions.

THE DAY OF DAYS.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 5.

from the country. They hope to entice them out of their money by exaggeration and skillful deceit. The old cry, "Press reduced for this day only," is an old "game," but they think they can make it win. When they say—wicked they don't—"Raised to 25 cents," they come much nearer the truth. They never charge more.

An apology is really due the public for this mere allusion to such concerns and their methods, but it really does seem too bad to have innocent and ignorant persons gulled out of their only opportunity to see the exhibition which moved the great American editor, Murat Halstead, to say editorially in the Brooklyn "Standard-Union" of May 3, 1897, "It is somebody's crime if all the children do not see it."

Be reminded once more that the day of days will be
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 5,
—AT—PADUCAH.

LOCAL MENTION.
Will Become a Y. M. C. A. Secretary.
Mr. A. Knox, of Pine Bluff, Ark., is a guest of Secretary Workman, of the Y. M. C. A. He is a graduate of the Y. M. C. A. training school at Chicago, and is studying to become a Y. M. C. A. secretary.

For Rent.—A good house, 623 North Fourth street. Apply to Capt. E. R. Datt, at Palmer, or Mr. C. E. Jennings.

Drinks the best. Stutz's orange phizoplate.

Bids Wanted.
I will receive bids at my store in Mechanicsburg until Saturday, the 18th, for hauling about 1200 yards of gravel on the Paducah and Benton gravel road.
1354 R. S. BARNETT.

Campbell-Mulvihill Coal Company will fill your road house more cheaper than anyone. Call and make contract.

Dr. Edwards, Specialty, Eyes, Ear, Nose and Throat, Paducah, Ky.

Day and Night School.
Special attention is given to arithmetic and writing, as well as the business department at the Smith Business College, corner Third and Madison streets. No classes. Any age admitted. Students can enter at any time.

Candidates Cards
Printed at this office in a style, fit for a Premier.

A Precinct Error.
In the change of voting precincts, detailed in County Clerk Graham's circular, it is stated that one of the city precincts is "the brick building at Ninth and Clay." There is no brick building there, and the one at Tenth and Clay is probably the building meant.

Tax Notice.
This is the last month you have to pay your state and county taxes. Don't fail to attend to this, as I will be compelled to enforce the penalty after Sept. 30.

W. H. JOHNSON,
Sole Agent, McQueen County.

If the ladies wish to see a carefully selected line of millinery at reasonable prices, they should call on Miss Z. C. Liss and Co., 1217 Broadway, next door to E. H. Rudy & Co.

There is coming one day when every only should take a half holiday. That day will be Buffalo Bill day, or Oct. 5. It is only once or twice in a lifetime when the elite are offered to see such an exhibition as the hero-scout, hunter and soldier, Col. W. F. Cody and his Wild West Congress of Rough Riders of the World. It may be his last visit to this city, as Europe is demanding his return to that continent.

Nearly Ready for Business.
The Delicatessen will be opened to the public about Saturday. It has been furnished in the most elegant style, and nothing will be spared to make it one of the most complete and popular resorts in the city. Mr. Charles E. Curtis, the well known young drummer, is the proprietor, but Mr. Charles Hawkins will be in charge of it.

Nice ash stove wood delivered promptly to any part of the city. Telephone 29. J. E. E. BELL.

The groom is 19 and the bride about 17.
LUMP COAL, 80 CASH.
NUT COAL, 70 CASH.

During the month of October we will deliver in your coal house the justly celebrated Tradewater Coal at the above prices. To enable us to make the unprecedented low prices, we must do away with book-keepers, collectors and land agents, three expensive features of the business; and without these we must make the unwavering rule that the cash must accompany each order, or be paid to the driver on delivery of coal. This is the best coal mined in Kentucky, and we guarantee each and every lump sent out by us.

PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER
A Pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder. 40 YEARS THE STANDARD.

To the Public:

Many of our customers have asked the question, "Why don't you move on Broadway, as you have as nice and as large a stock as anybody?" Now we must answer the question. A store on Broadway means a finer store—higher rent, finer fixtures, more clerks, more lights, etc. This all means more profit, and you have to pay for it.

Here are some Court street prices:

SHOE DEPARTMENT.
Men's fine dress shoes, Broadway price $3.50 to $5.00—our price, $2.00 to $2.50.
Men's everyday shoes, Broadway price, $1.50—our price, $1.00.
Ladies' fine dress kid shoes, Broadway price, $2.50 to $3.50—our price, $2.00.
Ladies' nice everyday shoes, 75c and $1.00.
Boys' school shoes, Broadway price, $1.50—our price, $1.00.
Children's shoes, 25c, 50c and 75c.
Misses' spring heel shoes, black and tan, 75c.

We want to close out our Furniture, Carpets, etc., and will give you some bargains. A full line of Underwear, Overshirts, Hats, Caps, Gloves, Umbrellas, Dry Goods, etc.

PADUCAH AUCTION CO.
Third and Court
We keep open till 10 o'clock every evening—Saturday till 12.

Among the Sick.
Mr. Smith Boyd is ill of malaria.
Mrs. M. Livingston is on the sick list.
Mrs. W. H. Bogeno is convalescent.
Mr. B. Jackson is convalescent after an attack of malaria.
The infant child of Mr. E. C. Cleaves is quite ill.

Officers Wm. Johnson and Albert Senter are ill of malaria.
Mrs. Frank Effinger is on the sick list, being attacked by malaria.
General Foreman Curley, of the 1. C. shops, is almost well.

Foreman Gonreux, of the freight department, is ill of malaria.
The Misses Lally, of Trimble street, are both seriously ill of fever.
Mrs. J. J. Dufour is unimproved, her many friends will regret to learn.

Mrs. Woods, at the residence of her brother, Officer Jeff Barnhart, is ill of malaria.
The captain and two of the crew on the Beaver, now undergoing repairs, are ill of malaria.

'Nuther Fire in Mayfield.
Fires are getting to be numerous in Mayfield. Another one yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock destroyed the residence of Mr. G. R. Allen, a prominent tobacco shandler, on West Water street. A defective flue was the cause of the blaze, but the flames were beyond the control of the fire company. The loss was near $2,500 with an insurance of $1,600.

A Female Railroad Agent.
The Illinois Central railroad company has opened a telegraph office at Pryorsburg, Ky., and a lady by the name of Mrs. S. Richmond has been installed as operator and depot agent there. So far as is known, this is the only female agent on this division, if not on the entire system.

Hon. Bill Reed Won't Run.
Col. Bill Reed, of Benton, was in town yesterday, says the Murray "Ledger." In response to the "Ledger's" inquiry whether he would be a candidate for circuit judge in his district, said: "Sir, I am a happy and contented man; I have been dealt with kindly here upon earth and trust St. Peter will smile approvingly when I reach the other side of eternal bliss. Therefore public office possesses no charms for me."

To the bicyclists:—If you are training for the races, Stutz's egg and milk will elongate your wind—and besides it is an elegant drink. 1 & S.

"Trolley" Ladies' Attention.
There will be an important meeting of the chaplains tomorrow at 3 p. m. at the residence of Mrs. Irene Cox. Also the young ladies who are to be conductors will meet at the same place at 4 p. m. tomorrow.

Hand Painfully Burned.
Pete Magner, the well-known young blacksmith of west Maxon's Mill, had his left hand painfully burned yesterday by catching hold of a very hot water pipe.

Ringside Times by Paducah.
Ringling Bros' circus will exhibit in Mayfield, October 12, and give Paducah the go by. This is the only Kentucky town it will visit this season. Its route will be from Cairo to Mayfield, Mayfield to Jackson, Jackson to Dyersburg, and thence through the southern states.

Runster Holloway's Condition.
Phil Holloway, the colored runner who was shot yesterday by Second Mate Allen, of the Shoshone, was today removed from Washington street to East Court, and is getting along fairly well, although it cannot now be determined the extent of his injuries. Nothing has been heard from Allen.

The stockholders of the Illinois Central met yesterday at Chicago, and the plan for the absorption of the Chesapeake, Ohio and Southwestern, the Short route railroad and the Ohio Valley railroad will be carried out. The accounts of these companies will not be kept separate hereafter, but will be included in those of the Illinois Central. The Louisville division will be made the equal of the best part of the Illinois Central system, both in rolling stock and track.

No Police Court.
There was no session of the police court today, as there were no arrests made last night, and no cases for trial.

The Mechanic Building and Loan Association meetings are now held at the Six office instead of Quigley & Boone.

SCHEDULE OF PRICES
—FOR—

Electric Lights,
TO TAKE EFFECT SEPTEMBER 1, 1897.

: TWENTY-FOUR HOURS' SERVICE.

As there seems to be a wrong impression prevailing about the price that will be charged for lights we give below the schedule that will prevail after the first of September. A careful perusal will convince you that the prices charged are reasonable and a great deal less than are charged in other cities.

Special prices for over thirty lights. Parties preferring to use Meter will be furnished with prices and any other information by calling at company's office.
